Course Outcome Summary

Course Information

Description  Provides an overview of history, philosophy, ethics, and scope of occupational therapy practice. Examines legal responsibilities, professional resources, and organization. Students practice basic skills related to therapeutic relationships and determine their own suitability to a career in occupational therapy.

Career Cluster  Health Science

Instructional Level  Associate Degree Courses

Total Credits  3

Textbooks

Course Competencies

1. Explore the scope of practice in delivery systems for an OT

   Assessment Strategies

   1.1. through experience with practicing therapists

   1.2. though a reflection (format may be oral, written, or graphic)

2. Summarize the importance of the history and philosophy base of OT

   Assessment Strategies

   2.1. in a written, oral or graphic reflection

3. Examine the roles and responsibilities of an OTA

   Assessment Strategies

   3.1. in an oral, written, or graphic assessment

4. Use professional resources and organizations

   Assessment Strategies

   4.1. through an oral, written, or graphic assessment
5. Articulate the Practice Framework: Domain
   Assessment Strategies
   5.1. by relating the domain to a real-world situation format may be oral, written, or graphic

6. Examine the Practice Framework: Process
   Assessment Strategies
   6.1. through an oral, written, or graphic assessment

7. Practice basic skills related to client centered practice
   Assessment Strategies
   7.1. by observing and documenting human behavior
   7.2. by performing an interview

8. Examine regulatory and legal factors that affect OT practice
   Assessment Strategies
   8.1. through an oral, written, or graphic reflection

9. Demonstrate therapeutic use of self
   Assessment Strategies
   9.1. through a skill demonstration

10. Examine diversity issues in a variety of settings
    Assessment Strategies
    10.1. through an oral, written, or graphic analysis